Polish Coverage

With a deepening Polish crisis, FBIS has doubled its Polish translation capability in Vienna, from two to four, and added two Polish linguists to its press unit in London, providing good coverage of Polish central and regional newspapers as well as the new Solidarity newspaper. Our BBC counterparts are covering Polish broadcasts and press agency transmissions with six monitors in London and two in Berlin. BBC is prepared to augment its Polish monitoring staff to 12 should it become necessary. FBIS has also documented Headquarters Polish language officers for possible overseas duty.

Clandestine Radios

The U.S. Embassy in Singapore, on 11 September, asked authorization for American embassies in five ASEAN countries to share with their host governments a recent memorandum prepared by the FBIS Analysis Group on "Malayan Communist Clandestine Radios." The Singapore Embassy commented that there is a "high level of interest" in Chinese support for these broadcasts. (A copy of this paper was forwarded to you on 3 August.)

Congressional Requests

On 15 September Senator Inouye's office called FBIS to request the text of a Radio Moscow commentary on U.S. development of the neutron bomb. Members of Congress, many of whom receive the FBIS Daily Report, frequently request broadcast material from FBIS. Such contacts are routinely reported by FBIS to the Legislative Liaison Branch.
